Letters of Support from Senator Gillibrand	19

Introduction

Dear Fellow New Yorker,

I would like to take the opportunity to provide you with important information about funding opportunities for faith based and community organizations. Our government, on both the state and federal level, provides funding for competitive grants. This funding bolsters critical social services in our communities, so it is important that faith based and community organizers like you are able to access the necessary resources in an easy and timely manner.

As I travel across New York and meet with community leaders such as you, one thing is clear - information about funds dispersed by the government for faith based and community organizations is often difficult to access and decipher. As your Senator, I am working hard to provide you with as much information as possible to put your organization in a position to compete for these funds. My office is committed to assisting you in accessing funds for your community's priorities.

President Obama recently established an advisory council designed to connect faith based and community non-profit organizations to people and resources in government. I look forward to working with the council as we build stronger communities and reach out more effectively to citizens in need. This guide is a first step to affording faith based and community organizations opportunities to participate in existing state and federally funded programs.

This guide will provide you with important deadlines, contact information, and a brief overview of each grant program. More detailed information for these programs can be found by visiting the internet links provided. In addition, I have provided contact phone numbers and emails.

As your Senator, securing funding for New York is one of my priorities in Washington. I hope that you find this guide to be informative and helpful. As you move forward in the application process for these grant opportunities, please contact Abraham Hiatt, my Grants Director, for letters of support, where applicable. You can reach him in my Washington, D.C. Office at Grants@Gillibrand.Senate.gov, or (202)-224-4451.

Sincerely,

Kirsten E. Gillibrand

Health and Human Services

1) Preferred Community Program

- The Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) invites the submission of applications for funding, on a competitive basis, for the Preferred Communities program to support the resettlement of newly arrived refugees in Preferred Communities where they have ample opportunities for early employment and sustained economic independence and, to address special populations who need intensive case management, culturally and linguistically appropriate linkages and coordination with other service providers to improve their access to services.

Eligibility:

- Organizations specializing in voluntary resettlement of refugees may apply.
- Faith-based and community organizations are eligible to apply

Award Amount:

- 12 awards with a maximum of $300,000 per award

2) Section 1115 Demonstration Grants

(Projects that Provide Family-Centered Services for Unwed Parents in the IV-D Caseload)

- The Office of Child Support Enforcement (OCSE) invites eligible applicants to propose projects for unwed parents to assist them in addressing both the financial and emotional needs of their child(ren). OCSE envisions projects that provide parents with information about how child support works so they are well informed and active participants in their IV-D case. OCSE also envisions projects that provide parents with the opportunity to agree upon an amount of child support, (while addressing their State's child support guidelines), that the noncustodial parent can reasonably be expected to pay and the custodial parent can then reasonably rely upon receiving.

Eligibility:

- Faith-based and community organizations are eligible to apply.
- Eligible applicants for these Section 1115 demonstration project grants are State (including the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands) Title IV-D agencies or the umbrella agencies of the IV-D program.

Award Amount:

- 3 awards with a maximum of $100,000 per budget period

5) National Resource Center for Hearing Screening and Intervention in Newborns

- The purpose of this cooperative agreement is to provide national leadership on implementation of sustainable statewide newborn hearing screening and intervention programs through resource development, education and training, policy initiatives, evidence-based data collection, and collaborative efforts with federal and non-federal partners. Specific focus will be on reducing the loss to follow-up of infants for whom further assessment is indicated. A statewide newborn hearing screening and intervention program is defined as the screening of all newborns prior to hospital discharge, audiologic diagnosis before 3 months of age, enrollment in a program of early intervention before 6 months of age, and linkages to a medical home and family-to-family support for all infants with a hearing loss. The Resource Center will also support the development and implementation of physiologic hearing screening in Early Head Start and Head Start sites through training of, and targeted ongoing technical assistance to local Head Start staff to conduct the screening test and to refer infants and toddlers indicated followup.

Eligibility:

- Faith-based and community organizations
- The applicant must be able to show expertise and experience in newborn hearing screening and the ability to serve in a national capacity to coordinate and initiate activities at the State, regional, and national level.
